A bit about you and the role:

You are a connector who enjoys meeting people (or, you have a keen interest in developing these skills!) You take pride in sharing stories of what is happening at BU CARES. This position includes exploring ways to engage the broader community through websites, social media, newsletters, or events, and will culminate in increased community awareness of BU CARES, evidenced by community memberships.

Benefits:

- Resume-building opportunity through involvement in BU CARES Research Centre
- Receive a Student Service Learning (SSL) Annotation on your transcript
- Networking – build relationships with educators and broader community members
- Build skills in communication and working collaboratively with researchers at BU CARES

Requirements/Qualifications:

- An interest and/or experience in education in rural and/or Indigenous communities
- Comfort with meeting new people and building relationships
- Brandon University student
- Successful application to the Student Service Learning (SSL) Program

BU CARES Research Centre is an applied research centre in the Faculty of Education at Brandon University. We promote, facilitate, and conduct research in collaboration with rural and Indigenous communities.

About Student Service Learning:

The Student Service Learning Program encourages student volunteerism by recognizing students' community contributions on their Brandon University transcripts. Upon receiving approval from the Service Learning committee and completing a minimum of 20 hours of volunteer service, Brandon University students can receive a Service Learning Annotation (recognition statement) on their transcript.
